

PARTY INFORMATION

FOR THE GROWN-UPS

IN CHARGE

Your party host is

The party will last approximately two hours from the time booked.

Whilst we are dedicated to looking after your party, adult supervision is also essential – please ensure that at least one adult per four children (five and under) and one adult per eight children (six and over) are available at all times.

We request that adult supervisors take responsibility for accompanying children to the toilet during the party.

Our dedicated party hosts have a feedback form for you to complete. Please provide any helpful suggestions and let us know how you found the party.

MAIN SAFETY CONSIDERATIONS

- The lanes can be very slippery please make sure the children do not step over the black foul line.
- Please watch out for children putting their hands in the ball return machinery.
- Your bowling shoes are slippery... if you run you fall!
- Only one bowler on the approach at any one time.

HAVE FUN!

Be sure to cheer your friends on

Make lots of noise

Make your own bowling chants, for strikes and for completely missing the pins

Be sure to celebrate - after all it's your birthday and all your friends want to see you have fun

Take lots of pictures

SAFETY POINTS

PLEASE REMEMBER THESE FEW

IMPORTANT PROCEDURES

- Please do not allow any child to step over the black foul line – it's very slippery on the lanes.
- The balls are heavy and can cause injury if not used appropriately. Your party host will tell you which weights are best for your group.
- Please do not put your hands in the machinery and ensure no child does this – it can be very dangerous.
- If you need guidance on how to bowl, ask your party host for a demonstration.
- We request that adult supervisors take responsibility for accompanying children to the toilet during the party.
- Whilst your party host will endeavour to make sure all safety points are adhered to, we cannot take responsibility for any injury caused by any person not following these simple safety procedures.
- Finally, have lots of fun and we hope you enjoy your party at NAMCO Funscape!
